

Verbs:

1. Write the definition of verb.
2. List the 20 linking verbs.
3. List the 23 helping verbs.

Write the verb of the following sentences.

1. The chicken has been marinating for hours.
2. The students spend hours completing their homework.
3. Dogs and cats may not be likely friends.
4. Do you like singing?
5. Jessica liked to cheat while playing chess.
6. You should not have been lying to your parents.
7. She's totally scared.
8. Driving a car is a massive responsibility.
9. Going to amusement parks provides fun for little and big kids.
10. Go to your room.

Action or Linking

Write the verb. Label the verb a or l.

11. Megan's usual appetite is much more voracious.
12. The rabbit appeared from the magician's hat.
13. Michael seems distracted today.
14. The teachers may not have been supportive of the snow day.
15. This roller coaster is making me nauseous.

Subjects and HTF Subjects:

Write the subject or subjects of the following sentences.

1. My friend from the post office talks about the price of stamps often.
2. During the winter storm, schools and businesses were shut down because of the snow.
3. A few of the volunteers were assigned to the dunking booth.
4. Six of the last seven pitches were called strikes.
5. He'll be angry this time!

Write the subject, verb, and the key concept number of each of the following sentences.

6. Plant your flower seeds in the late fall for best results.
7. Are the jury members going to make a decision soon?
8. Here are the final pieces to the jigsaw puzzle.
9. Around the corner of the block stood the rival gang.
10. How are you planning to study for the vocabulary quiz?

